

La spiaggia di San Pietro in Bevagna (Manduria)

There is no translation available, please select a different language.

The St. Peter's Beach in Bevagna with its country is one of the most beautiful destinations along the coast Ionian of North Salento. It is a real corner of paradise on earth, with its stretches of golden sand and the sea with emerald green colors.

Those who are lucky to stay in this flap of Salento, will hardly forget the boundless spectrum of colors that can see during sunny days.
