

The dune beach of Campomarino di Maruggio

The beach of Campomarino di Maruggio

The dune beach of Campomarino di Maruggio and the iridescent sea of seven colors

If you are looking for a seaside destination with crystal clear sea and unspoiled nature, we recommend the Campomarino di Maruggio beach in Salento .

Due to its iridescent sea, Campomarino is defined as the iridescent sea of seven colors .

its shades are, in fact, incredible and every day they are able to amaze the visitor. Why go to exotic destinations when you have all this beauty in Puglia?

Campomarino di Maruggio: the beach

Campomarino di Maruggio is the only fraction of the municipality of Maruggio .

In recent years, the seaside town has been defined as one of the most beautiful beaches in Italy by Legambiente and various national and foreign newspapers.

The praises to this small stretch of the Ionian coast for its clear and clean waters have gone on for years.

In this way, subtracting the town of Campomarino di Maruggio from anonymity.

For this natural palette, the sea of Campomarino di Maruggio has been awarded the title of iridescent sea of seven colors

The coast of Campomarino di Maruggio extends for about 9 km and borders to the east with Torre Borraco and to the west with Torre Ovo, marina di Torricella.

The neighboring town of Torre Ovo is also equipped with a tourist port and a fishing port , in the square in front of which a multi-ethnic market is held in summer.

This is the only real port mooring on the coast between Porto Cesareo and Taranto.

The long beach of Campomarino di Maruggio embraces numerous locations of bewitching beauty.

Here olive groves, bordered by dry stone walls, reach the bay, where the light sand forms gentle dunes.

The dunes of Maruggio, covered with broom bushes and Mediterranean scrub , represent an important site of natural interest to the point of creating the Park of the Campomarino Dunes .

The Park's preserved dunes extend over 41 hectares and represent some of the best preserved dunes in Italy.

As in the whole coast of the Salento peninsula, then, in Campomarino di Maruggio, there is no shortage of equipped beaches to ensure every kind of comfort. But Campomarino di Maruggio the free beaches are still numerous.

If you want some advice on the choice of beaches in Campomarino di Maruggio , we can say that they are all of a certain level. And that all the bathing establishments in the area offer a dream view, giving memorable days.

The area of Maruggio is therefore a real discovery for your holidays in Puglia and will surprise you with its emerald green sea.

What to see in Campomarino di Maruggio

If you are on vacation in Salento and want to spend a day in Campomarino in Taranto , we provide you with some ideas about what to see in Campomarino di Maruggio and surroundings.

On the border between Campomarino di Maruggio and Borraco, the beach of Monaco Mirante opens up, a small oasis of relaxation a few kilometers from Porto Cesareo.

Although the long beach of Mirante is flanked by the coastal road, you can breathe an air of peace and tranquility, little traveled by tourists.

Do not expect services nearby, to have bars and restaurants available you have to move to Campomarino!

In Campomarino, moreover, it is possible to visit the Torre delle Moline , an ancient lookout tower that had the purpose of defending the mainland from Saracen raids.

The tower is located in Piazzale Italia, better known as the "round", the beating heart of the town. This 16th century building is now home to the Maruggio tourist info point.

Mandatory is an excursion to Maruggio. The city has about 5,000 inhabitants and has been elected as one of the most beautiful villages in Italy.

The small village, in addition to having Caribbean beaches a few kilometers from the town, has a fairytale historic center. The ancient white houses overlook small alleys and winding streets. The town also hosts numerous events, including the National meeting of small bands.

Finally, if you are in Puglia do not miss the opportunity to visit Torre Colimena , with its blue sea and the Salina dei Monaci. It is located just 20 km away from the town of Campomarino.

Were you impressed by this destination and would you like to know more about the offers of b & b in Campomarino di Maruggio and holiday homes ?

Visit our portal. You will find our proposals in Campomarino Maruggio for beach houses .

Or call us, we will be at your complete disposal to offer you the most convenient tourist rentals in Campomarino di Maruggio.